Fiction / Children's book

Mikke and Sara are two porcupine siblings who are going to cross the motorway where the cars drive past. A dramatic trip is in store, but big sister Sara is clever...

Sara knows that they must make their way between the wheels of the big lorry that is approaching them at full speed. Luckily it ends well! Sometimes you're Absolutely Right is an exciting picture book for young children, beautifully illustrated by Hilde Kramer.

Thorvald Steen debuted in 1983 and has since that time had a number of books published in different genres, such as novels, plays, poetry collections, short stories, children's books and essays.

Thorvald Steen

Thorvald Steen is one of Scandinavia's leading authors, translated into 26 languages. His international breakthrough came with the novel Don Carlos (about Charles Darwin). This and other novels have been critically acclaimed bestsellers. Camel Clouds had 22 print runs in Turkey. Constantinople and The Weight of Snow Crystals were bestsellers in Norway. The same applies to The Little Horse, about Snorri Sturluson, bestsellers in Iceland and Russia.

Thorvald Steen has received numerous prizes including the Swedish Academy's Doubloug Prize, the Saga Prize (Iceland), the Ján Hollý Prize and the Comenius Medal (Slovakia). Steen was chairman of NORLA and the Norwegian Authors' Union for many years, and a board member for PEN International.
