Ida Wirak Trettevik

Ida Wirak Trettevik has been making knitting patterns under her own brand, Witre Design, since 2018. The patterns are sold from her webpage, www.witre.no, and she markets Witre Design through Instagram, @witre.no, and with tutorials on YouTube. She had her debut as an author with her first knitting book, «En strikkers år», in 2020. Her second book «Strikk med Witre Design» was published in spring 2022. Ida lives in Oslo, and works today full time as a designer making knitwear and knitting pattern

Trendy and sustainable knitwear from Witre Design!

New patterns in sizes XS to 3XL from one of Norway's most popular knitting designers, Ida Wirak Trettevik, who runs the Instagram account @witre.no.

When you knit with Witre Design, you are creating something from scratch. You choose materials of good quality, adapt the garment to exactly your size, and knit something that lasts.

A garment from Witre Design expresses pride and creative joy. Here you will find patterns that suit your style and mood, whether it is a summery singlet or a lovely, warm jacket to crawl into.

The book contains both simple patterns for beginners and larger projects, in both thin and thick yarn qualities. Here you will find sweaters, jackets, balaclavas, beanies, vests and summer tops. Enjoy!
