A powerful novel from one of Norway's most prominent actors, about families, betrayal and finding yourself when everything around you is chaotic.

Ellen is a shy 13-year-old Norwegian girl, who somewhat reluctantly has to spend the summer with her father, at his cabin in Sweden. It will be a summer where everything changes for Ellen. Not only does it become clear to her that her dad is not like all other dads. He also carries secrets. One day at the cabin, the biggest secret of all materializes and from that moment everything is turned upside down and suddenly the world is not the same anymore.

An agreement for film option has been signed for this title and the producer is Thomas Robsahm, who produced the fiction movie «The worst person in the world« from 2022. The film was Oscar- nominated in two catgories, for best original screenplay and best foreign language film.
