Just when you think everything will work out and life is on your side, that's when it happens.

A nurse is found dead on the railway tracks, after resigning from the hospital. Many doubt that Lotta would have committed suicide. She always seemed so happy, loved her job and was well-liked by her colleagues.

The hospital corridors are buzzing with rumours and soon Lotta's death is not the only strange death. Surgeon Andreas Nylund feels increasingly insecure and pressured in his work situation, and with that the risk of making serious mistakes, also increases.

Once the accident occurs, it has fatal consequences.

Anne-Marie Schjetlein

Anne-Marie Schjetlein is a trained specialist nurse and she has mainly worked in the Swedish surgical sector. In addition to her writing, she works as a leader in skills development at a large hospital in Stockholm. Life in a hospital is a compressed world that oscillates between sorrow, suffering, pain, life and death, but also joy and hope. In the blink of an eye, everything can change from euphoria to disaster. A very suitable backdrop for suspense novels, according to the author.

Schjetlein made her debut as an author in 2014. The first title of her new suspense series was published in fall 2024.

With a skill for drama, relationships and everyday realism, Anne-Marie Schjetlein captivates both readers and critics.
