

Stilton Literary Agency

The Wings of Death

Original title: Dödens vingslag
Publisher: Bokfabriken 2021
Fiction / Crime novel

The Wings of Death*, is the last book of six in the psychological suspense series with hospital life as a backdrop. Sold more than 100.000 copies!

History seems to repeat itself in more than one way. Someone is copying terrible events from the past, but why?

Summer has a firm grip on the town of Halmstad, and Stina and Andreas are invited to the County Governor's party at the castle. When Stina wanders around the corridors of the castle, she sees a glimpse of something behind a corner. Stina is shocked to discover a dead woman, whose fingers are tied crossed.

Some time later, a corpse is found walled up in a basement passage in the center of Halmstad. The skeleton turns out to be old, and Stina becomes immersed in the myth of a secret passage to the castle, through which Christian IV's mistress could use to reach him. However, Stina's curiosity turns to horror when it's revealed that the corpse's index and middle fingers are tied in the same way as the dead woman's.

Foreign rights

WAPI, Denmark

Anne-Marie Schjetlein

Anne-Marie Schjetlein is a trained specialist nurse and she has mainly worked in the Swedish surgical sector. In addition to her writing, she works as a leader in skills development at a large hospital in Stockholm. Life in a hospital is a compressed world that oscillates between sorrow, suffering, pain, life and death, but also joy and hope. In the blink of an eye, everything can change from euphoria to disaster. A very suitable backdrop for suspense novels, according to the author.

Schjetlein made her debut as an author in 2014. The first title of her new suspense series was published in fall 2024.

With a skill for drama, relationships and everyday realism, Anne-Marie Schjetlein captivates both readers and critics.

Other titles

The Shooter (2024)
Death Watching (2020)
Death Beneath the Surface (2019)
Death Unseen (2017)
Pale as Death (2016)
Death doesn't care (2014)