Fiction Novel / Feel Good

Church Bells by the River, is a warm, romantic and humorous feel-good Christmas novel about love, betrayal and the longing for adventure.

There is love in the air . Maggie and her beloved Åke are getting married soon, expectations are high, but time is running out. The chocolate making and café business are going so well that Maggie and Hilma are having a hard time keeping up. Hilma is secretly asked by Åke to help with the wedding preparations, but everything is complicated by the appearance of people from her past. Why have they all turned up there now? And what is the secret her boyfriend Joel is carrying?

At the same time, we follow a girl from a village outside Leksand who experiences both love and sorrow in 1970s Spain.

A perfect feel good novel, colored by the beautiful landscape of Dalarna district with its red cottages, the traditional old wooden storehouses and church boats on the river.
