A Watertight Plan -- right up until it sinks

What if you found a bag containing 1,7 million Euro on the shore? Would you keep it? Freelance architect Børre Korsmo asks his wife this question. "Of course not," says Mona Korsmo. -- But what if you thought the money could save your life?

A Watertight Plan is a gripping psychological drama set on the idyllic island of Sandøya, off the coast of Tvedestrand in Southern Norway. Together with his cousin Reidar—who lives on disability benefits—Børre Korsmo discovers a bag containing 1,7 million Euro in the sea. They decide to hide the money and lie low, even though they know it is drug money and that someone will come looking for it. But are Børre and Mona willing to do whatever it takes to achieve their dream? Can Børre be certain they share the same dream? And what if Reidar gets cold feet?

Lars Lenth

Lars Lenth (b. 1966) is Norway's undisputed number one when it comes to fly fishing for trout. His literary debut came with the novel The same river in 2007, a fly fishing novel following a young man's experiences through a season of fishing. The Norwegian patient introduced the lawyer Leonard Vangen and the criminal Rino Gulliksen, two characters who readers have grown fond of. Leo and Rino reappear in The Vega Brothers, Men who hate wolves, Gimme Shelter and King of Lofoten. In all five novels there's a deep felt tension between man and nature.
